REMEMBERING THE ICE BREAKER

The Ice Breaker is your first opportunity to share something about yourself and your goals with other members of your club. You may want to include the following information in your speech to help club members get to know you:

- The reason you joined Toastmasters (if a person or incident influenced you to join, share that story)
- Your communication and leadership goals

At the bottom of the page, there is a navigation bar with the Toastmasters logo and the text "WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE". There is also a dropdown menu labeled "Select to move to another section:" and a link labeled "Motivational Strategies 1: Ice Breaker".

8- Each project has a variety of learning materials such as videos, these will teach you about the skill you need to develop

YOU AND YOUR GOALS

ORGANIZE YOUR SPEECH

Your Ice Breaker is a story about you. The four elements of a good story are:

- Interesting topic
- Opening
- Body
- Conclusion

Give your speech an opening, body, and conclusion to effectively communicate your overall purpose. Begin by introducing yourself. In the body of your speech, share information you would like your fellow members to know about you. Conclude with a funny or interesting anecdote that relates to your desire to become a better speaker and leader.

If you have completed an Ice Breaker before, focus on your goals for your current path.
